3. The Office of Medical Services is in the process of revising their reporting format. Psychological Services Staff (PSS) is losing one psychometrist and two clerical employees, which will impact on the staff's ability to meet their assessment goals. Mr. Fitzwater will get in touch with the Director of Communications to discuss a crypto problem experienced by PSS this week. ☐

4. The Office of Security has received 83 cases for the November class, 74 are in process, 2 have been approved, and 7 have been cancelled. The Pilot Program has received 4 cases, which are still in process. ☐

5. The summer 1979 CT class began the Orientation Course on 27 August, and the course seems to be going well. One member of the class resigned because of personal problems. ☐
